Health Department Statement on Supreme Court Ruling

Eau Claire, WI – May 13, 2020 8:10 PM – The following statement was issued by Lieske Giese, Director of the Eau Claire City-County Health Department:

“In the wake of the Wisconsin Supreme Court ruling regarding the Safer-At-Home order, the Eau Claire City-County Health Department is consulting with state and local authorities about possible next steps. In the meantime, in the interests of preventing spread of COVID-19, we respectfully request that Eau Claire County residents voluntarily continue to follow safe social distancing practices.”

The health and safety of all community members remains our highest priority.
